

WELCOME TO WORSHIP

We are always happy to have visitors with us in Cregagh, and we welcome any who may be worshipping with us today. We would invite our visitors to sign the Visitor's Book in the Vestibule, giving name and full postal address.

This morning Pebbles crèche is available for babies and toddlers and Kidzone for children age 3 and upwards

ORDER OF SERVICE

 The Processional and Recessional hymns are not announced – the numbers are on the hymn boards – hymnbooks and Bibles are in the pews for your use.

 Please stand (if able) as the service begins when the Bible is carried into church, and the Minister and Choir enter, and remain standing until the Minister says: "Let us pray"

 This morning the Offering is after the Sermon and is unannounced

 Please stand as the collectors bring the Offering to the Sanctuary for dedication, and remain standing until after the Recessional hymn and the Minister and Choir leave and the Bible is carried from the church

As part of our 125th Anniversary Services, we are delighted to welcome back this morning Rev Christopher Glover (served as Assistant Minister 1996-1999) to share in our service today.

COFFEE BAR

The Coffee Bar is open in the Allen Hall after this morning's service. Everyone is invited to stay for a cuppa and a further time of fellowship.

PRESBYTERIAN CHILDREN'S SOCIETY

The Presbyterian Children's Society exists to support children and young people in the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. It works mainly through ministers to alleviate poverty and financial hardship for eligible families and their children, by providing regular and exceptional grants. The Society is currently assisting around 810 children in 410 families in 180 congregations throughout Ireland. Please support the Society prayerfully in their work. There will also be an opportunity to give financial support through retiring offerings later in the month. (Dorothy Platt)

COMMUNICANT CLASSES

Rev McKenzie hopes to conduct a class for anyone (of whatever age) who would like to explore communicant membership. This could also be a refresher for those who would like to think more about the Lord's Table. Those who would like to come into membership would be welcomed as communicants at the Palm Sunday communion. Please consider coming forward and encourage others to do the same.

125th ANNIVERSARY GALA DINNER

Places are starting to fill up now for our Gala Dinner Dance on Friday 24th April 2026 at 7pm in the Stormont Hotel. The Dress code is formal, and the cost is £49 per person. Some people have asked if children can attend. As this is our own private event the hotel have said that well behaved children are welcome. There is a children's menu available at £15 for those under 12 years of age, but anyone over 12 must pay the full price.

Tickets and Menu choices will be given out after next week to those that have already booked and paid, and for those that have already paid a deposit please remember that the balance needs paid by the end of March.

To book please contact Elaine Gillespie, Tel: 07990 610918 or see her at the 125 Merchandise table in the Allen Hall after church. A deposit of £10 can secure your place and payment by credit or debit is also welcome.

MUSIC WORKING GROUP

A working group has been put together to explore questions relating to music provision in Cregagh, considering how the congregation may use music in their worship with a mind on '20 years from now'. In time, the group will facilitate a congregational consultation and will report on a number of different issues allowing for an informed discussion where Kirk Session can consider and make decisions. Please do pray for this important work.
